November Program by Lura Campbell

Our November Guild meeting will feature Karen Gibbs, Design Director of Banyan Batiks by Northcott. The Design Studio is located here in Denver, Colorado. Karen works with talented artisans all over Indonesia as well as Guest Designers here in North America. You've probably seen some of her projects in current publications, like QuiltMaker, American Quilter, Quilters World, showcasing her batiks.

She is a quilter first though. Karen has worked in many aspects of the industry, written patterns, written a book published with AQS, long-armed for approx. 1500 clients, designed all kinds of fabrics, national teacher...lots of stuff. ☺ She found her niche though, in batiks. The hand done process mirrors our passion for the hand done process in quilting.

Karen has a Facebook group called Karen Gibbs For the Love of Batiks and is counting on the guilds she speaks at to give her some fun challenges, batik parties, sew a longs, stories, etc to talk about!

I am sure that Karen can also give us some fun ideas to consider trying this year.

Karen's presentation will be followed by a slide show of what members have submitted showcasing what they have been working on during our Safer at Home year. Link to Zoom Meeting

President's Notes by Janet Humphreys

Dear Guild:

I hope everyone is doing well. Be sure and follow the link for the Zoom meeting this Thursday. It's not the same at all, but it sure is good to see all your faces.

I saw the AQS shows have been cancelled for 2021. I know many of you are as disappointed as I am. The shows are a source of inspiration and of course, shopping!

I am looking forward to seeing what everyone has been working on. See you on Thursday night. -Janet
